

PVS Orchestra Spring Session 2010

Our Beginning and Intermediate Orchestra classes have been doing a terrific job with their string instruments, and Miss Patience is very pleased with their progress! The classes will continue with a new session starting after Spring Break. Our string students will continue to refine their musicianship skills, such as playing with good posture and position, playing in tune with nice tone and steady rhythmic pulse, and learning both the melody and harmony parts to many familiar songs. In addition, the Intermediate class will learn more complex rhythms, key signatures with more sharps and flats, and shifting into higher positions.
